

---

"imagine" things that weren't possible before. Impossible "thing" in black & white... Your imagination creates the impossible in color... Colorful imaginings... #2. Your senses... Your imagination, along with your senses... ...they let you feel things that you can't "see" but you can see those things using your imagination.