Before we get started, we wanted to introduce the new way to play FIFA by providing a bit more insight into our game. It's all about the game underneath the game. It's about fun, creativity, and control. Every aspect of gameplay is driven by Football. You can use the ball with an innovative new Flick, Pivote or Volte, deploy up to 16 players on the pitch, use new passes to keep possession and destroy opposition with the most advanced set of attacks ever. It's all about the game underneath the game. Football's in everything FIFA 22 brings to the pitch – including new free kicks, headers and volleying. You can even take the game to the streets by adopting the ball by hand. Kick off by foot, pass with the foot, head the ball with your forehead, whatever your style, football's still football, just different now. FIFA 22 brings better movement and transitions. Get the ball into feet quickly with flick kicks, create the space and control the ball with slide tackles, and accurately place your curling shots – either from the feet or with new headers. FIFA delivers an all-new look, feel and play to its core footballing engine. You can find yourself in possession with the ball tucked under your legs, tucked away under the kicker, or with a defensive-orientated ball play. Substitute players can be introduced by your team and also picked up off the bench by opposition teams. As you play, the game measures your progress and creates compelling leaderboards. Focus on the core game mechanics and to progress your Ultimate Team you'll need to focus on playing like a pro. Jorge Mata Villegas, senior producer at EA SPORTS:

"Our goal for FIFA has always been to recreate the beautiful game of football in a way that no one has ever experienced before. We've tried to make the game 'more football' without losing sight of the competition. "Football is a game of emotions and tactics, and this year we wanted to bring both aspects to the game: how do you achieve victory in every situation and at every stage of the match?" Football meets the future Football has been a part of FIFA for a long time. In FIFA it has always been about dissecting, controlling and attacking the game. Always looking to the future of gaming technology, we have come up with a game that is able to bring all
